

Dr. Jason Kurecki, MD

Internal Medicine

Dr. Jason Kurecki is a board-certified Internal Medicine physician born and raised in Sarasota County. Growing up in Venice, Florida, he graduated from Venice High School in 1998 before attending the University of South Florida, where he earned both his Bachelor of Science and Doctor of Medicine degrees. He completed his Internal Medicine internship and residency at Carolina Medical Center in Charlotte, North Carolina.

Dr. Kurecki has devoted his career to caring for the Sarasota community. He served as a hospitalist at Sarasota Memorial Hospital's Sarasota and Venice campuses from 2010–2026, including eight years as Medical Director for the SMH First Physicians Group Hospitalist Program. In February 2026, he joined Premier Physicians of Sarasota, where he continues his commitment to delivering compassionate, comprehensive patient care.

In addition to his clinical work, Dr. Kurecki has held numerous leadership positions, including roles on the Medical Executive Committee, Infection Prevention and Control Committee, Utilization Management Committee, and several multidisciplinary quality and operational boards across the Sarasota Memorial Health system. His leadership has supported hospital operations, physician engagement, patient safety initiatives, and quality improvement efforts.

Outside of medicine, Dr. Kurecki enjoys an active family life with his wife, Ester, and their four children—Jakson, Lilliana, Raina, and Evalina. He can often be found cheering on his children at their various sporting and extracurricular events, including his son's participation on the U.S. Junior Olympic gymnastics team and his daughters' interests in cheerleading, volleyball, and basketball. He also enjoys physical fitness, fishing, kayaking, snorkeling, cruising with Ester, and caring for the family's backyard chickens.

Dr. Dr. Kurecki brings to Premier Physicians of Sarasota a warm, approachable style and a deep dedication to the wellbeing of the patients and community he has always called home.
